Spartanburg County, South Carolina is now accepting applications from non-profit agencies for Grant-In-Aid funding. The purpose is to provide grants-in-aid to 501(c)3 and government entities for services benefiting the community or augmenting the quality of life in Spartanburg County. Funding of the agencies is approved annually by County Council as part of the budget process.

Applicants interested in applying for Accommodations Tax must apply through a separate process as required by state statute. Information on the Accommodations Tax application process can be found at <http://www.spartanburgcounty.org/432/Accommodations-Tax>.

It is advisable that the program or project aligns with the goals and objectives established by Spartanburg County Council for Spartanburg County. Please see Section 1 of the Grant-In-Aid application or follow the link below for a list of Spartanburg County Council's goals and objectives.
